Section 1. Section 28-10-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"28-10-103. Actual versus ostensible agency -- limitation. (1) An agency is either actual or ostensible. An agency is actual when the agent is really employed by the principal. An agency is ostensible when the principal intentionally or by want of ordinary care causes a third person to believe another to be the principal's agent when that person is not really employed by the principal.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), for purposes of a malpractice claim, as defined in 27-6-103, liability may not be imposed on a health care provider, as defined in 27-6-103, for an act or omission by a person or entity alleged to have been an ostensible agent of the health care provider at the time that the act or omission occurred.

1 (3) (a) Subsection (2) is not applicable unless the health care provider has instituted a policy or 2 practice requiring persons providing independent professional services to have insurance of a type and in the 3 amount required by the rules and regulations of the medical staff, by the medical staff bylaws, or by other
 4 similar health care facility rules or regulations. The insurance provided for in this subsection must be in effect
 5 for the period of time during which a medical malpractice action must be brought as provided in 27-2-205.

6 (b) Failure of a health care provider providing independent professional services to comply with a
 7 policy or practice implementing subsection (3)(a) constitutes unprofessional conduct pursuant to ~~37-1-316(17)~~
 8 37-1-316(1)(q) and 37-2-304."

9

10 Section 2. Section 37-1-308, MCA, is amended to read:

11 "37-1-308. Unprofessional conduct -- complaint -- investigation -- immunity -- exceptions. (1)

12 Except as provided in subsections (4) and (5), a person, government, or private entity may submit a written
 13 complaint to the department charging a licensee or license applicant with a violation of this part and specifying
 14 the grounds for the complaint.

15 (2) If the department receives a written complaint or otherwise obtains information that a licensee
 16 or license applicant may have committed a violation of this part, the department may, with the concurrence of a
 17 member of the screening panel established in 37-1-307, investigate to determine whether there is reasonable
 18 cause to believe that the licensee or license applicant has committed the violation. However, if the written 19 complaint or information that a licensee or license applicant may have violated a requirement of this part is 20 based on the free exercise of religion or the freedom of speech and expression as protected under the Montana
 21 constitution and the United States constitution, then the investigation of the licensee or license applicant must 22 cease immediately and the complaint must be dismissed unless the alleged violation results from conduct that 23 is not the free exercise of religion or the freedom of speech and expression.

24 (3) A person or private entity, but not a government entity, filing a complaint under this section in 25 good faith is immune from suit in a civil action related to the filing or contents of the complaint.

26 (4) A person under legal custody of a county detention center or incarcerated under legal custody
 27 of the department of corrections may not file a complaint under subsection (1) against a licensed or certified
 28 provider of health care or rehabilitative services for services that were provided to the person while detained or

1 confined in a county detention center or incarcerated under legal custody of the department of corrections
2 unless the complaint is first reviewed by a correctional health care review team provided for in 37-1-331.

3 (5) A board member may file a complaint with the board on which the member serves or otherwise
4 act in concert with a complainant in developing, authoring, or initiating a complaint to be filed with the board if
5 the board member determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a particular statute, rule, or 6 standard has been violated."
