(iii) where and by whom the petitioner is confined or restrained.

NEW SECTION. Section 7.—Executive branch power of board of regents and board of public education — definitions. (1) The board of regents and the board of public education are agencies of the executive branch of state government. As such, they are required to enforce, within their respective spheres, laws adopted by the legislature or by the people.

(2) The oversight of the Montana University System entrusted by the state constitution to the board of regents refers to the kind of oversight customarily exercised by executive branch officers over operations assigned to them and does not extend to overriding state statutes. The board of regents' power regarding the government, control, supervision, coordination, and management of the university system and other public educational institutions is assigned by law.

(3) — The duties entrusted by the state constitution to the board of public education are limited to executive branch functions and do not extend to overriding state statutes. The board of public education exercises general supervision over the public school system and other public educational institutions as assigned by law.

(4) — The rights of the people protected in the United States and Montana constitutions extend fully to geographical areas under the control of the board of regents and the board of public education. The boards are obligated to respect and protect those rights and to implement laws that protect or enhance them.

(5) — As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) — "Board of public education" means the board of public education created in Article X, section 9(3), of the Montana constitution and 2-15-1507.

(b) — "Board of regents" means the board of regents of higher education established by Article X, section 9(2), of the Montana constitution and 2-15-1505.

(c) — "Coordination" means the process of organizing people or groups so that they work together properly and well.

(d) — "General supervision" means general instructions are given and tasks are undertaken to achieve required outcomes or objectives.

(e) — "Government" means the authority to supervise, coordinate, manage, and control.

(f) — "Manage" or "management" means an activity inclusive of control that is performed on a daily basis.

(g) — "Supervision" means regular monitoring of the administrative, clinical, or clerical work performance of a staff member, trainee, student, volunteer, or employee on contract by a person with the authority to give direction and require change.

Section 8. Section 2-15-1505, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-15-1505.—Board of regents of higher education. (1) The board of regents of higher education created in Article X, section 9, subsection (2), of the Montana constitution consists of seven members appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. The governor, superintendent of public instruction, and commissioner of higher education are ex officio nonvoting members of the board of regents.

~~(2) — The board of regents is an executive agency of government and as such is charged with complying with and enforcing state law within the scope of its jurisdiction as provided in [section 7]."~~

Section 9. Section 2-15-1507, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-15-1507. — Board of public education. (1) The board of public education created in Article X, section 9, subsection (3), of the Montana constitution consists of seven members appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. The governor, superintendent of public instruction, and commissioner of higher education are ex officio nonvoting members of the board of public education.

~~(2) — The board of public education is an executive agency of government and as such is charged with complying with and enforcing state law within the scope of its jurisdiction as provided in [section 7]."~~

NEW SECTION. Section 2. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 through 7 SECTION 1] are ~~is~~ intended to be codified as a new AN INTEGRAL part of Title 1, chapter 1, and the provisions of Title 1, chapter 1, apply to [sections 1 through 7 SECTION 1].

NEW SECTION. Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.
