18 another health insurance issuer;

19 (c) a preferred provider organization or health maintenance organization; and

20 (d) any other individual or entity that provides, offers to provide, or administers hospital, outpatient,
21 medical, or other health benefits to a person treated by a health care provider under a policy, plan, or contract."

22

23 Section 2. Section 33-32-107, MCA, is amended to read:

24 "33-32-107. Length of prior authorization. (1) A Except as provided in subsection (2), certification by 25 a utilization review organization approving health care services is valid for at least 3 12 months from the date
26 the health care provider receives the certification unless the covered person loses coverage under the 27 applicable health plan or health insurance coverage.

28 (2) A certification by a utilization review organization approving a health care service for treatment

1 of a chronic condition is valid for the duration of the condition. The utilization review organization may not
2 require the covered person to obtain certification again for the same health care service. The utilization review
3 organization may require documentation that the chronic condition remains present no more frequently than 4 every 12 months."

5

6 Section 3. Section 33-32-221, MCA, is amended to read:

7 "33-32-221. Prior authorization requirements. (1) A health insurance issuer or an entity that a
8 health insurance issuer contracts with to perform a prior authorization on the health insurance issuer's behalf 9 may not perform prior authorization on benefits for:

10 (a) any generic prescription drug that is not listed within any of the schedules of controlled
11 substances found at 21 CFR 1308.11 through 21 CFR 1308.15 or the schedules of controlled substances found
12 in Title 50, chapter 32, after a covered person has been prescribed the covered drug at the same quantity
13 without interruption for 6 months;

14 (b) any prescription drug or drugs, generic or brand name, on the grounds of therapeutic
15 duplication for the same drug if the covered person has already been subject to prior authorization on the 16 grounds of therapeutic duplication for the same dosage of the prescription drug or drugs and coverage of the 17 prescription drug or drugs was approved;

18 (c) any prescription drug, generic or brand name, solely because the dosage of the medication for 19 the covered person has been adjusted by the prescriber of the prescription drug, as long as the dosage is 20 within the dosage approved by the food and drug administration or is consistent with clinical dosing for the 21 medication; or

22 (d) any prescription drug, generic or brand name, that is a long-acting injectable antipsychotic;

23 (e) controlled substances found at 21 CFR 1308.15 or the schedules of controlled substances
24 found in Title 50, chapter 32;

4 (iii) an inhaled combination corticosteroid and beta-agonist;

5 (iv) a short-acting insulin for diabetes; or

6 (v) a long-acting insulin for diabetes.

7 (3) If an individual has multiple prescriptions for any one kind of prescription drug listed under 8 subsection (1)(g), a health insurance issuer or its utilization review organization may perform a prior 9 authorization on all but one prescription.

10 (4) If the health insurance issuer or its utilization review organization makes an adverse
11 determination for a prescription drug during prior authorization, the health insurance issuer or its utilization
12 review organization shall provide a written adverse determination notice that includes a list of reasonable
13 therapeutic alternatives that are covered by the insurer's formulary.

14 (2) (5) Any adverse determination for a prescription drug made during prior authorization by a health
15 insurance issuer must be made by a physician whose specialty focuses on the diagnosis and treatment of the 16 condition for which the prescription drug was prescribed to treat, provided that prior authorization that does not
17 result in an adverse determination does not require the involvement of a physician on the part of a health 18 insurance issuer."
