

1 lease, permit, or action is subject to a challenge.

2 (c) If a lease is issued under this part and an exploration license provided for in 82-4-332 is
3 obtained on the leased land, the lease must be extended commensurately with the period for which the 4 exploration license is authorized and for which exploration is occurring on the leased land.

5 (3) As long as a lessee complies with the terms and conditions of a lease, the lease may not be
6 terminated at the end of the primary term of the lease described in subsection (2)(a) if the lands are covered
7 and described by a mining permit issued under Title 82, chapter 4, or are described in a mine-site location
8 permit under Title 82, chapter 4.

9 (3) (4) Leases issued under this part must give the lessee, so-as long as the lessee complies with the 10 terms and conditions of the lease, the exclusive right of possession of the lands or mineral rights leased,
11 subject to any reservations contained in the leases.

12 (4) (5) In making the leases, the board may exercise business discretion as long as this part is not 13 violated.

14 (6) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

15 (a) "Commercial quantities" means a quantity of metalliferous minerals or gems that can be sold at 16 a profit.

17 (b) "Covered and described" or "described" means, under a mine permit or a mine-site location
18 permit, that the leased lands or a portion of the leased lands within or outside the boundaries of the permit area
19 are expected to be affected or disturbed at some point during the term of the permittee's exploration activities or
20 surface mining or underground mining operations and are identified in the permittee's license or permit
21 application."

22

23 Section 2. Section 77-3-117, MCA, is amended to read:

24 "77-3-117. Modification of lease provisions. The board, by agreement with the permittee or lessee,
25 may, in its discretion and upon such terms as it considers best, amend or modify the terms and conditions
26 within the limitations of this part or extend the term of any lease or prospecting permit issued under this part,
27 subject to the limitations contained in 77-3-102(1) and (2)."

28

1 Section 3. Section 77-3-130, MCA, is amended to read:

2 "77-3-130. Limitation on public inspection rights. The department ~~may~~shall withhold from public
3 inspection any information obtained from a mining lessee or permittee under this part if the information relates
4 to the geology of the mining lease or permit. The withholding is effective for as long as the department
5 considers ~~it necessary, but in no event may be less than 5 years after expiration of the lease or permit, either to~~
6 protect the mining lessee's or permittee's economic interest in the geologic information against unwarranted
7 injury or to protect the public's best interest."

8

9 Section 4. Section 77-3-203, MCA, is amended to read:

10 "77-3-203. Duration of lease. (1) (a) Subject to subsections (1)(b) and (1)(c), a lease must be issued 11 for:

12 (i) ~~No such lease shall be made for a longer a primary term of not less than 10 years, and to be~~
13 held by production for as long thereafter as nonmetallic minerals are produced in commercial quantities; or

14 (ii) if the lands are subject to limitations contained in grants by which the state acquired title to the 15 lands or mineral rights to be leased, a period determined by the board to be in accordance with the limitations.

16 (b) If a lease issued under this part, a corresponding permit issued pursuant to Title 82, chapter 4,
17 or a proposed evaluation under Title 75 is challenged before an administrative agency or in court, the primary
18 term of the lease described in subsection (1)(a) must be commensurately extended for the period that the
19 lease, permit, or action is subject to a challenge.

20 (c) If a lease is issued under this part and an exploration license as provided for in 82-4-332 is 21 obtained on the leased lands, the lease must be extended commensurately with the period for which the 22 exploration license is authorized and for which exploration is occurring on the leased lands.

23 (2) (a) As long as a lessee complies with the terms and conditions of a lease, the lease may not be
24 terminated at the end of the primary term of the lease described in subsection (1)(a) if the lands are covered
25 and described by a mining permit issued under Title 82, chapter 4, or are described in a mine-site location
26 permit under Title 82, chapter 4.

27 (b) If nonproduction may result in the termination of a lease under this part, the lessee may provide
28 notice to the board of the lessee's election to pay a nonproduction royalty to extend the primary term of the

1 lease for a one-time, subsequent term of 5 years. The board may determine the appropriate nonproduction
2 royalty payment to be paid by the lessee.

3 (3) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

4 (a) "Commercial quantities" means a quantity of nonmetallic minerals that can be sold at a profit.

5 (b) "Covered and described" or "described" means, under a mine permit or a mine-site location
6 permit, that the leased lands or a portion of the leased lands within or outside the boundaries of the permit area
7 are expected to be affected or disturbed at some point during the term of the permittee's exploration activities or
8 surface mining or underground mining operations and are identified in the permit or permit application."

9

10 Section 5. Section 77-3-211, MCA, is amended to read:

11 "77-3-211. Limitation on public inspection rights. The department ~~may~~shall withhold from public
12 inspection any information obtained from a lessee under this part if the information relates to the geology of the 13 mining lease. The withholding is effective for as long as the department considers ~~it~~necessary, but in no event
14 may be less than 5 years after the expiration of the lease or permit, either to protect the lessee's economic 15 interest in the geologic information against unwarranted injury or to protect the public's best interest."

16

17 NEW SECTION. Section 6. Modification of lease provisions. The board, by agreement with the 18 permittee or lessee, may, in its discretion and upon such terms as it considers best, amend or modify the terms
19 and conditions within the limitations of this part or extend the term of any lease or prospecting permit issued
20 under this part, subject to the limitations contained in 77-3-203.

21

22 NEW SECTION. Section 7. Codification instruction. [Section 6] is intended to be codified as an
23 integral part of Title 77, chapter 3, part 2, and the provisions of Title 77, chapter 3, part 2, apply to [section 6].

24

25 NEW SECTION. Section 8. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.
