Description of fiscal impact: SB 176 revises the allocation of legislators appointed to legislative interim committees, and certain other statutory committees, to reflect the majority and minority composition of the Legislature. This bill has no fiscal impact to the state since no additional members are being added to these committees.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions:Legislative Branch

- SB 176 reallocates the majority and minority membership on interim committees to reflect the majority and minority composition of the Legislature.
- While SB 176 changes the majority and minority membership allocation, no additional members are added to these committees so there is no fiscal impact to the Legislative Branch.
