6 NEW SECTION. Section 3. Property tax rebate -- penalty for false or fraudulent claim. (1) Except 7 as provided in subsection (2), if the department discovers that a rebate paid to a taxpayer exceeded the amount 8 allowed by [sections 1 through 3], the department may, within 1 year from the date the rebate was transmitted

6 the excess must be refunded to the claimant. The credit may be claimed even though the claimant has no 7 income taxable under this chapter.

8 (3) A person is not disqualified as a claimant if the person changes residences during the claim 9 period, provided that the person occupies one or more dwellings in Montana as a renter or lessee for at least 7

12 gross rent charged to be excessive, the department may adjust the gross rent to a reasonable amount.

13 (5) A receipt showing gross rent paid must be filed with each claim. In addition, each claimant 14 shall, at the request of the department, supply all additional information necessary to support a claim.

15 (6) Except as provided in subsection (8), a claim for relief must be submitted at the same time the

18 (6) Except as provided in subsection (7), a claim for relief must be submitted at the same time the 19 claimant's 2024 individual income tax return is due. For an individual not required to file a tax return, the claim 20 must be submitted on or before April 15, 2025.

21 (7) The department may grant a reasonable extension for filing a claim whenever, in its judgment, 22 good cause exists.

23 (8) In the event that an individual who would have a claim under this section dies before filing the 24 claim, the personal representative of the estate of the decedent may file the claim.

25 (9) The department or an individual may revise a return and make a claim under this section within 26 3 years from the last day prescribed for filing a claim for relief.

27 (10) Only one claimant for each household is entitled to relief.

28 (11) A claim for relief may not be allowed for any portion of rent-equivalent taxes paid that is derived

1 from a public rent program.

2 (12) Except for dwellings rented from a county or municipal housing authority, a claim for relief may 3 not be allowed on rented lands or rented dwellings that are not subject to Montana property taxes during the 4 claim period.

5 (13) A person filing a false or fraudulent claim must be charged with the offense of unsworn
6 falsification to authorities pursuant to 45-7-203. If a false or fraudulent claim has been paid, the amount paid, 7 penalties, and interest may be recovered as provided in 15-1-216.

8 (14) The payment of renter property tax refund and administration costs related to paying property 9 tax refunds under this section are statutorily appropriated, as provided in 17-7-502, from the general fund to the

1 security benefits or part of their tier 1 railroad retirement benefits in federal adjusted gross income may split the 2 federal base used in calculation of federal taxable social security benefits or federal taxable tier 1 railroad
3 retirement benefits when they file separate Montana income tax returns. The federal base must be split equally 4 on the Montana return.

5 (6) Married taxpayers filing a joint federal return who are allowed a capital loss deduction under 6 section 1211 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 1211, and who file separate Montana income tax returns
7 may claim the same amount of the capital loss deduction that is allowed on the federal return. If the allowable 8 capital loss is clearly attributable to one spouse, the loss must be shown on that spouse's return; otherwise, the 9 loss must be split equally on each return.

10 (7) In the case of passive and rental income losses, married taxpayers filing a joint federal return
11 and who file separate Montana income tax returns are not required to recompute allowable passive losses 12 according to the federal passive activity rules for married taxpayers filing separately under section 469 of the 13 Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 469. If the allowable passive loss is clearly attributable to one spouse, the 14 loss must be shown on that spouse's return; otherwise, the loss must be split equally on each return.

15 (8) Married taxpayers filing a joint federal return in which one or both of the taxpayers are allowed 16 a deduction for an individual retirement contribution under section 219 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C.
17 219, and who file separate Montana income tax returns may claim the same amount of the deduction that is 18 allowed on the federal return. The deduction must be attributed to the spouse who made the contribution.

19 (9) (a) Married taxpayers filing a joint federal return who are allowed a deduction for interest paid
20 for a qualified education loan under section 221 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 221, and who file
21 separate Montana income tax returns may claim the same amount of the deduction that is allowed on the 22 federal return. The deduction may be split equally on each return or in proportion to each taxpayer's share of 23 federal adjusted gross income.

24 (b) Married taxpayers filing a joint federal return who are allowed a deduction for qualified tuition
25 and related expenses under section 222 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 222, and who file separate 26 Montana income tax returns may claim the same amount of the deduction that is allowed on the federal return.
27 The deduction may be split equally on each return or in proportion to each taxpayer's share of federal adjusted 28 gross income.

1           (10)    A taxpayer receiving retirement disability benefits who has not attained 65 years of age by the 2   end of the tax year and who has retired as permanently and totally disabled may exclude from adjusted gross 3   income up to $100 a week received as wages or payments in lieu of wages for a period during which the 4   employee is absent from work due to the disability. If the adjusted gross income before this exclusion exceeds 5   $15,000, the excess reduces the exclusion by an equal amount. This limitation affects the amount of exclusion,
6   but not the taxpayer's eligibility for the exclusion. If eligible, married individuals shall apply the exclusion 7   separately, but the limitation for income exceeding $15,000 is determined with respect to the spouses on their 8   combined adjusted gross income. For the purpose of this subsection, "permanently and totally disabled" means 9   unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determined physical or mental 10   impairment lasting or expected to last at least 12 months.

11           (11)    (a) An individual who contributes to one or more accounts established under the Montana
12   family education savings program or to a qualified tuition program established and maintained by another state
13   as provided by section 529(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 529(b)(1)(A)(ii), may reduce 14   adjusted gross income by the lesser of $3,000 or the amount of the contribution. In the case of married 15   taxpayers, each spouse is entitled to a reduction, not in excess of $3,000, for the spouses' contributions to the 16   accounts. Spouses may jointly elect to treat half of the total contributions made by the spouses as being made 17   by each spouse. The reduction in adjusted gross income under this subsection applies only with respect to 18   contributions to an account of which the account owner is the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, or the taxpayer's
19   child or stepchild if the taxpayer's child or stepchild is a Montana resident. The provisions of subsection (1)(e) 20   do not apply with respect to withdrawals of contributions that reduced adjusted gross income.

21           (b)    Contributions made pursuant to this subsection (11) are subject to the recapture tax provided in 22   15-62-208.

23           (12)    (a) An individual who contributes to one or more accounts established under the Montana
24   achieving a better life experience program or to a qualified program established and maintained by another
25   state may reduce adjusted gross income by the lesser of $3,000 or the amount of the contribution. In the case
26   of married taxpayers, each spouse is entitled to a reduction, not to exceed $3,000, for the spouses'
27   contributions to the accounts. Spouses may jointly elect to treat one-half of the total contributions made by the 28   spouses as being made by each spouse. The reduction in adjusted gross income under this subsection (12)(a)

1 applies only with respect to contributions to an account for which the account owner is the taxpayer, the 2 taxpayer's spouse, or the taxpayer's child or stepchild if the taxpayer's child or stepchild is a Montana resident.

3 The provisions of subsection (1)(e) do not apply with respect to withdrawals of contributions that reduced 4 adjusted gross income.

5 (b) Contributions made pursuant to this subsection (12) are subject to the recapture tax provided in 6 53-25-118.

7 (13) (a) A taxpayer may exclude the amount of the loan payment received pursuant to subsection 8 (13)(a)(iv), not to exceed $5,000, from the taxpayer's adjusted gross income if the taxpayer:

9 (i) is a health care professional licensed in Montana as provided in Title 37;

10 (ii) is serving a significant portion of a designated geographic area, special population, or facility 11 population in a federally designated health professional shortage area, a medically underserved area or 12 population, or a federal nursing shortage county as determined by the secretary of health and human services 13 or by the governor;

14 (iii) has had a student loan incurred as a result of health-related education; and

15 (iv) has received a loan payment during the tax year made on the taxpayer's behalf by a loan 16 repayment program described in subsection (13)(b) as an incentive to practice in Montana.

17 (b) For the purposes of subsection (13)(a), a loan repayment program includes a federal, state, or 18 qualified private program. A qualified private loan repayment program includes a licensed health care facility, as 19 defined in 50-5-101, that makes student loan payments on behalf of the person who is employed by the facility 20 as a licensed health care professional.

21 (14) A taxpayer may exclude the amount of loan repayment assistance received during the tax year
22 pursuant to Title 20, chapter 4, part 5, not to exceed $5,000, from the taxpayer's adjusted gross income.

23 (15) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), adjusted gross income does not include 40%
24 of capital gains on the sale or exchange of capital assets before December 31, 1986, as capital gains are
