9
10 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

11
12 Section 1. Section 41-5-206, MCA, is amended to read:

13 "41-5-206. Filing in district court prior to formal proceedings in youth court. (1) The county
14 attorney may, in the county attorney's discretion and in accordance with the procedure provided in 46-11-201,
15 file with the district court a motion for leave to file an information in the district court if:

16 (a) the youth charged was 12 years of age or older at the time of the conduct alleged to be 17 unlawful and the unlawful act would if it had been committed by an adult constitute:

- 18 (i) aggravated sexual intercourse without consent as defined in 45-5-508;
- 19 (i)(ii) sexual intercourse without consent as defined in 45-5-503;
- 20 (ii)(iii) deliberate homicide as defined in 45-5-102;
- 21 (iii)(iv) mitigated deliberate homicide as defined in 45-5-103;
- 22 (iv)(v) assault on a peace officer or judicial officer as defined in 45-5-210(1)(B)(i), (1)(C), OR (1)(D); or
- 23 (v)(vi) the attempt, as defined in 45-4-103, of or accountability, as provided in 45-2-301, for either
24 ~~deliberate or mitigated deliberate homicide~~ any of the acts enumerated in subsections (1)(a)(i) through (1)(a)(v);

25 or

26 (b) the youth charged was 16 years of age or older at the time of the conduct alleged to be 27 unlawful and the unlawful act is one or more of the following:

- 28 (i) negligent homicide as defined in 45-5-104;

1 SPECIFIC NEEDS OF THE YOUTH AND PROTECT THE SAFETY OF THE PUBLIC AS WELL AS OTHER DETAINED YOUTH; AND

2 (V) ANY OTHER RELEVANT FACTOR.

3 (9) IF THE COURT FINDS, BASED ON THE CRITERIA IN SUBSECTION (8)(B), THAT IT IS IN THE INTEREST OF

4 JUSTICE TO DETAIN A YOUTH UNDER THE JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURT IN A JAIL OR OTHER ADULT DETENTION

5 FACILITY PENDING THE FINAL DISPOSITION OF THE YOUTH'S CASE, THE COURT MUST:

6 (A) HOLD A HEARING AT LEAST ONCE EVERY 30 DAYS TO REVIEW WHETHER IT IS STILL IN THE INTEREST OF

7 JUSTICE TO REQUIRE THE YOUTH TO CONTINUE TO BE HELD IN A SECURE ADULT FACILITY OR HAVE NO SIGHT OR SOUND

8 CONTACT WITH ADULT INMATES;

9 (B) HOLD AN ADDITIONAL HEARING BEFORE THE YOUTH HAS BEEN DETAINED FOR 180 DAYS TO

10 DETERMINE, IN WRITING, IF THERE IS GOOD CAUSE FOR AN EXTENSION UNLESS THE YOUTH EXPRESSLY WAIVES THIS

11 LIMITATION."

12

13 Section 2. Section 41-5-208, MCA, is amended to read:

14 "41-5-208. Transfer of supervisory responsibility to district court after juvenile disposition --

15 nonextended jurisdiction and nontransferred cases. (1) (a) After adjudication by the court of a case that

16 was not ~~transferred-sentenced~~ to district court under pursuant to 41-5-206 and that was not prosecuted as an

17 extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution under part 16 of this chapter, the court may, on the youth's motion or

18 the motion of the county attorney, transfer jurisdiction to the district court and order the transfer of supervisory

19 responsibility from juvenile probation services to adult probation services. A transfer based on a motion may be 20 made at any time after a youth reaches 18 years of age but before the youth reaches 21 years of age.

21 (b) A transfer under this section may be made to ensure continued compliance with the court's

22 disposition under 41-5-1512 or 41-5-1513 and may be made at any time after a youth reaches 18 years of age

23 but before the youth reaches 21 years of age or through stipulation to provide the youth with additional

24 supervision, care, rehabilitation, detention, competency development, and community protection.

25 (2) Before transfer, the court shall hold a hearing on whether the transfer should be made. The 26 hearing must be held in conformity with the rules on a hearing on a petition alleging delinquency, except that

27 the hearing must be conducted by the court without a jury. The court shall give the youth, the youth's counsel,

28 and the youth's parents, guardian, or custodian notice in writing of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing

1 at least 10 days before the hearing. At the hearing, the youth is entitled to receive:

- 2 (a) written notice of the motion to transfer;
- 3 (b) an opportunity to be heard in person and to present witnesses and evidence;
- 4 (c) a written statement by the court of the evidence relied on and reasons for the transfer;
- 5 (d) the right to cross-examine witnesses, unless the court finds good cause for not allowing
- 6 confrontation; and
- 7 (e) the right to counsel.

8 (3) After the hearing, if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that transfer of 9 continuing supervisory responsibility to the district court is appropriate, the court shall order the transfer.

10 (4) If a youth whose case has been transferred to district court under this section violates a
11 disposition previously imposed under 41-5-1512 or 41-5-1513, the district court may, after hearing, impose
12 conditions as provided under 46-18-201 through 46-18-203 but may not place a youth in a state adult
13 correctional facility unless the youth was adjudicated for a felony offense.

14 (5) (a) The hearings under subsections (2) and (4) may be waived by the youth through a 15 stipulation in writing prior to or after an adjudication by the court of a case that was not:

- 16 (i) sentenced in district court pursuant to 41-5-206; and
- 17 (ii) prosecuted as an extended jurisdiction juvenile prosecution under part 16 of this chapter.
- 18 (b) Jurisdiction must automatically transfer to the district court and supervisory responsibility must 19 automatically transfer to adult probation services on the youth turning 18 years of age. The district court may 20 impose conditions as provided under 46-18-201 through 46-18-203, but the youth may not be incarcerated in a 21 state adult correctional facility unless stipulated to by the parties.

22 (c) The stipulation provided for in subsection (5)(a) must:

- 23 (i) advise the youth of their rights to a hearing pursuant to subsections (2) and (4);
- 24 (ii) advise the youth that the youth is knowingly and voluntarily waiving the right to hearings;
- 25 (iii) advise the youth of the youth's right to counsel; and
- 26 ~~(iii)~~(iv) specify the age the youth is to be supervised by adult probation services, up to 25 years of age.

27 ~~(5)~~(6) If, at the time of transfer, the youth is incarcerated in a correctional facility, the district court may 28 order that the youth, after reaching 18 years of age:

1 (a) be incarcerated in a state adult correctional facility if the youth was adjudicated for a felony
2 offense, boot camp, or prerelease center; or

3 (b) be supervised by the department.

4 ~~(6)(7)~~ The district court's jurisdiction over a case transferred under this section terminates when the 5 youth reaches 25 years of age."

6

7 Section 3. Section 41-5-1302, MCA, is amended to read:

8 "41-5-1302. Consent adjustment without petition. (1) Before referring the matter to the county
9 attorney and subject to the limitations in subsection (3), the juvenile probation officer or assessment officer may 10 enter into a consent adjustment and give counsel and advice to the youth, the youth's family, and other 11 interested parties if it appears that:

12 (a) the admitted facts bring the case within the jurisdiction of the youth court;

13 (b) the youth and the youth's family have been advised of the youth's right to counsel;

14 ~~(b)(c)~~ counsel and advice without filing a petition would be in the best interests of the child, the family,
15 and the public; and

16 ~~(e)(d)~~ the youth may be a youth in need of intervention and the juvenile probation officer or 17 assessment officer believes that the parents, foster parents, physical custodian, or guardian exerted all
18 reasonable efforts to mediate, resolve, or control the youth's behavior and the youth continues to exhibit
19 behavior beyond the control of the parents, foster parents, physical custodian, or guardian.

20 (2) Any probation or other disposition imposed under this section against a youth must conform to 21 the following procedures:

22 (a) Every consent adjustment must be reduced to writing and signed by the youth, the youth's legal 23 counsel, and the youth's parents or the person having legal custody of the youth.

24 (b) If the juvenile probation officer or assessment officer believes that the youth is a youth in need
25 of intervention, the juvenile probation officer or assessment officer shall determine that the parents, foster
26 parents, physical custodian, or guardian exerted all reasonable efforts to mediate, resolve, or control the youth's
27 behavior and that the youth continues to exhibit behavior beyond the control of the parents, foster parents,
28 physical custodian, or guardian.

68th Legislature 2023

Drafter: Milly Allen, 406-444-9280

HB0614.003.002

1 (c) Approval by the youth court judge is required if the complaint alleges commission of a felony or
2 if the youth has been or will be in any way detained.

3 (3) A consent adjustment without petition under this section may not be used to dispose of a
4 youth's alleged second or subsequent offense if:

5 (a) the youth has admitted commission of or has been adjudicated or sentenced for a prior offense
6 that would be a felony if committed by an adult;

7 (b) the second or subsequent offense would be a felony if committed by an adult and was 8 committed within 3 years of a prior offense; or

9 (c) the second or subsequent offense would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult and was 10 committed within 3 years of a prior offense, other than a felony, unless the juvenile probation officer notifies the 11 youth court and obtains written approval from the county attorney and the youth court judge.

12 (4) For purposes of subsection (3), related offenses committed by a youth during the same 24-hour
13 period must be considered a single offense.

14 (5) (a) If the youth fails to fulfill the expressed terms and conditions of a consent adjustment, either
15 prior to discharge by probation services or expiration of the consent adjustment, the county attorney may file a 16 petition to:

17 (i) charge the youth to be a delinquent youth pursuant to Title 41, chapter 5; or 18 (ii) revoke the consent adjustment with the youth court.

19 (b) If a petition to revoke the consent adjustment is filed pursuant to subsection (5)(a)(ii) and the 20 youth court finds that the youth violated the consent adjustment, the youth court may adjudicate the youth
21 pursuant to 41-5-1512. A revocation of a consent adjustment must follow the procedures as set forth in 41-5-22 1431."

23

24 Section 4. Section 41-5-1501, MCA, is amended to read:

25 "41-5-1501. Consent decree with petition. (1) (a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), after 26 the filing of a petition under 41-5-1402 and before the entry of a judgment, ~~the court may, on motion of counsel~~
27 ~~for the youth or on the court's own motion, suspend the proceedings and continue the youth under supervision~~
28 ~~under terms and conditions negotiated with probation services and agreed to by all necessary parties. The~~

1 court's order continuing the youth under supervision under this section is known as a "consent decree" the 2 county attorney, the youth's legal counsel, probation services, and the necessary parties may enter into a
3 consent decree. Except as provided in subsection (1)(b), the procedures used and dispositions permitted under 4 this section must conform to the procedures and dispositions specified in 41-5-1302 through 41-5-1304 relating
5 to consent adjustments without petition and the responsibility of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a
6 contribution for the costs of placement in substitute care.

7 (b) A youth may be placed in detention for up to 10 days on a space-available basis at the county's 8 expense, which is not reimbursable under part 19 of this chapter.

9 (2) A consent decree under this section may not be used accepted by the youth court unless:

10 (a) the youth admits guilt enters an admission of guilt for a charge of an offense set forth in the 11 petition and accepts responsibility for the youth's actions;

12 (b) the youth waives the youth's right to a jury trial; and

13 (c) the youth court questions the youth to ensure that the youth knowingly and voluntarily enters 14 the admission and waives the right to a jury trial; and

15 (d) if the youth is not represented by legal counsel, the youth court questions the youth to ensure 16 that the youth knowingly and voluntarily waives the right to counsel.

17 (3) If the youth or the youth's counsel objects to a consent decree, the court shall proceed to 18 findings, adjudication, and disposition of the case.

19 (4) (a) If, either prior to discharge by probation services or expiration of the consent decree, a new
20 petition alleging that the youth is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention is filed against the youth
21 or if the youth fails to fulfill the expressed terms and conditions of the consent decree, ~~the petition under which~~
22 ~~the youth was continued under supervision may be reinstated in the discretion of the county attorney in~~
23 ~~consultation with probation services. In the event of reinstatement, the proceeding on the petition must be~~
24 ~~continued to conclusion as if the consent decree had never been entered~~ a petition to revoke the consent
25 decree may be filed with the youth court at the discretion of the county attorney but in consultation with 26 probation services.

27 (b) Probation services is given discretion to extend a consent decree prior to a petition to revoke a
28 consent decree being filed. In the event of revocation and on a finding by the youth court that the youth violated

1 a consent decree, the youth court shall proceed to adjudication and disposition of the case pursuant to 41-5-
2 1513. A revocation of a consent decree must follow the procedures as set forth in 41-5-1431.

3 (5) A youth who is discharged by probation services or who completes a period under supervision
4 without reinstatement of the original petition a petition to revoke the consent decree being filed may not again
5 be proceeded against adjudicated again in any court for the same offense alleged in the petition, and the 6 original petition must be dismissed with prejudice. This subsection does not preclude a civil suit against the 7 youth for damages arising from the youth's conduct.

8 (6) If the terms of the consent decree extend for a period in excess of 6 months, the juvenile 9 probation officer shall at the end of each 6-month period submit a report that must be reviewed by the court.

10 (7) A consent decree with petition under this section may not be used to dispose of a youth's
11 alleged second or subsequent offense if that offense would be a felony if committed by an adult or third or 12 subsequent offense if that offense would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult unless it is recommended
13 by the county attorney and accepted by the youth court judge.

14 (8) For the purposes of this section, "consent decree" means an agreement to defer adjudication of 15 the youth as a delinquent youth and places the youth on supervision with probation services for a certain 16 amount of time."

17
18 Section 5. Section 41-5-1605, MCA, is amended to read:

19 "41-5-1605. Revocation of stay -- disposition. (1) If a court has imposed on a youth a sentence
20 stayed under 41-5-1604(1)(a)(ii) and the youth violates the conditions of the stay or is alleged to have 21 committed a new offense, the court may, without notice, direct that the youth be taken into immediate custody.
22 The court shall notify the youth, the youth's counsel, and the youth's parents, guardian, or custodian in writing
23 of the reasons alleged to exist for revocation of the stay of execution of the sentence.

24 (2) (a) The court shall hold a revocation hearing at which the youth is entitled to receive:

25 (i) written notice of the alleged violation;

26 (ii) evidence of the alleged violation;

27 (iii) an opportunity to be heard in person and to present witnesses and evidence;

28 (iv) the right to cross-examine witnesses, unless the court finds good cause for not allowing
