14 WHEREAS, the 2021 Legislature appropriated $2.75 million in House Bill 632 for a study of the 15 reimbursement rates paid by the Department of Public Health and Human Services to providers of health care, 16 behavioral health care, developmental disabilities, and senior and long-term care services, including nursing 17 homes; and

18 WHEREAS, the Governor and the Department of Public Health and Human Services used the 19 appropriation to contract with the consulting firm of Guidehouse; and

20 WHEREAS, Guidehouse produced two reports in 2022 identifying the rates necessary to cover the 21 costs of providing services and detailing the extent to which the state's rates fall short of the benchmarks; and

22 WHEREAS, the rate levels identified in the rate study reports specify how the state can improve its 23 provider rates to account for the true costs of operating as a health care provider in this state; and

24 WHEREAS, the insufficiency of reimbursement rates has resulted in the closure of 11 nursing homes
25 and the loss of 857 skilled nursing facility beds in the state, with more nursing homes on the brink of closure; 26 and

27 WHEREAS, the insufficiency of reimbursement rates has contributed, and continues to contribute, to
